

Connie's Corner

November 4, 2010

Cooler weather is here and Halloween is over, and there are only 20 days til Turkey Day. Yikes!!! Never fear however, because Sautters Floral Shop is ready and waiting to fill your Thanksgiving table with a beautiful centerpiece or to decorate your home with fresh floral accents. A great way to remember friends and loved ones that you won't see over the holiday is to send a floral arrangement. It's a great way to brighten their day...and yours!

The Floral Shop is busy getting ready for our Christmas Open House scheduled for Dec. 4th and 5th. Saturday hours will be 10:00 to 4:00, and Sunday will be from 12:00 to 4:00.

Santa Clause will make an appearance on Saturday, and several area artists will be here to display and sell their wares.

Save the dates and I'll see you then!
